From Felon to Attorney: A Successful Reentry Into Society

STC Certification Number: 06060195

Through the eyes of the instructor, who is currently a California Board Licensed Attorney and former prison felon, students will explore:

- the history of prisons and its evolution to current times;
- the prevailing culture of prisons to include race, sexual assault, prison economies, mental health treatment, and solitary confinement;
- the theories of inmate culture;
- the current structure of prisons in the United States to include overcrowding, private prisons, and realignment;
- the impact of AB 109 on the correctional system;
- methods of adaptation common among inmates and how those methods may inhibit successful reintegration which include reclusion and isolation, hyper-masculinity, aggression, emotional numbness, and mental health disorders;
- the restrictions that impact life needs (housing, employment, and finances) and those that impact democratic participation (voting and jury service); and
- the popular evidence-based approaches to reentry with the examination of Risk Assessment tools and the Risks-Needs-Responsivity principles on which they are built.

Cost for this 8-hour course is $75 per student.
